

Picture Ident 2/13/2006

Columba Hall Dining Room Renovation

The Dining Room of the Holy Cross Brothers' residence on the University of Notre Dame campus, Columba Hall, recently underwent a four-month renovation which included new carpeting, chairs, dishes, table tops, painting, serving area, and contemporary artwork. Renovation also took place in the Columba Hall entrance where there was new carpeting, painting and new tinted glass entrance. The project was directed by Brother Donald Morrison, C.S.C., Administrative Assistant to the superior at Columba Hall. The last dining hall renovation of Columba Hall, one of the oldest buildings on campus, was in 1989.